BUSINESS DESCRIPTION

The Company has developed the “i-nexus” web-based product suite that facilitates strategy implementation within large organisations by enabling the monitoring and management of the huge number of projects required to deliver strategy. The company operates a satellite sales office in the United States.

MIDVEN ADDED VALUE

i-Solutions received an investment of £250,000 from the Advantage Growth Fund sponsored by Advantage West Midlands and managed by Midven. The investment will enable the Company to strengthen further the relationships with its sales channel partners and complete the development of the third part of its three product software suite.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

The Company has sold its software to businesses including Pfizer, Airbus, ALSTOM and Royal Bank of Scotland. The pipeline of current sales opportunities is significant incorporating organisations within the United States, China as well as the UK.

Roger Wood

Comments that “The Company has established a strong customer base and proven route to market through business improvement consultants. Its US presence is key to its continued development within a large and rapidly growing market for its product.”
